- 1) In line with government guidance applicable at the time of the Show on the admission of visitors to the Showground, we advise you to abide by mandatory, or advisory that may be in place during the event. As a condition of booking your ticket and entry to the event, you are kindly reminded of the requirement to adhere to this Code of Conduct which will be outlined in full on the Show web site. The Society reserves the right to exclude any visitor that fails to comply with the Code of Conduct
- 2) The Society does not accept any responsibility for personal injury or damage to Property, or any other loss, damage, costs and expenses, however caused.
- 3) Tickets cannot be refunded once purchased.
- 4) The Society reserves the right to refuse admission or remove any person who is in breach of or fails to conform to the Society's rules or regulations.
- 5) Filming, photography and broadcasting takes place during the show at the Venue. You give your express consent to the use of your actual or simulated likeness and voice in connection with the production, exploitation and advertising of the show without compensation or credit, throughout the world.
- 6) For security reasons, visitors may be subject to extra searches of their bags. Thank you for your co-operation and patience.
- 7) The benefits of membership may change as circumstances dictate. There will be no refund of membership should any of the benefits not be available such as the cancellation of the Frome Agricultural & Cheese Show.

Data Protection & GDPR

The FDAS aims to set the best practice in implementing the Data Protection Act (1998) and GDPR (2018). As part of our service to you, we would like to advise you that your details will be retained on a secure database. This is to facilitate any ticket queries or future bookings. No card details are stored by the Show or our third party e-ticket provider, TicketSrv. The Frome Agricultural & Cheese Show, FDAS and TicketSrv are PCI DSS Compliant and review security policies annually.
